ABSTRACT SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

Abstract Submission Deadline
February 28, 2026 at 12.00PM (ARG time)

General Information

- The abstract text, as well as any tables and figures (if applicable), must be written in English.
- Abstracts must be submitted exclusively through the congress website (www.lag-ctl.com.ar).
- You may save your work and make modifications up until the submission deadline. Once the abstract has been submitted, no further changes can be made.
- Abstracts must describe original research or studies that represent an advance in the field of CLL and must not have been published at the time of submission. Encore abstracts and clinical case series will be accepted.
- The Scientific Committee will not accept single case reports abstracts, abstracts that show marked similarity (e.g., topic, population, centers of origin, or groups of authors) to others already submitted, or abstracts that constitute promotion of public or private professional entities, companies, or commercial names of any brand, product, or healthcare service.

- All accepted abstracts will be published in *Revista Hematología of the Argentinian Society of Hematology (SAH) and presented as e-posters during the Poster Walk session.
 - The Scientific Committee will select the best abstracts for oral presentation, in addition to the e-poster presentation.

About the Abstract Submission.

1. Language

- The abstract must be written in English.

2. Thematic Area

- Please select one option: Clinical or Basic/Translational.

3. Title

- Provide a clear and descriptive title that reflects the main content of the abstract.
- Use uppercase letters.
- Avoid abbreviations whenever possible. Commercial drug names and the names of institutions must not be included.
- Maximum length: 300 characters (including spaces).

4. Abstract Structure and Length

- The abstract must be structured as follows and have a maximum length of 3,000 characters (including spaces), excluding references:
 - Introduction
 - Objective(s)
 - Methodology (including statistical analysis)
 - Results
 - Conclusions

5. References

- Up to five (5) references may be included, formatted in Vancouver style.

6. Figure or Table

- A maximum of one (1) figure or one (1) table may be included.
- The file must be uploaded in jpg, png or pdf format with a minimum resolution of 300 dpi.

7. Ethical Statement

- If applicable, the abstract must state whether the research was approved by an Ethics Committee and/or an Institutional Animal Care and Use Committee (IACUC).
- If applicable, informed consent from the patient, family member, or legal guardian for publication of the research could be requested.

8. Funding:

- please state whether the study received funding. If applicable, specify the funding source. If not, state: “No external funding was received.”

9. Authors

- Each abstract may include up to 50 authors.
- Each co-author must be entered using a valid and active email address as the primary identifier.
- Please designate a corresponding author, who will be responsible for the abstract and available to answer questions regarding the submission. The corresponding author does not necessarily have to be the presenting author.
- Please select the order in which the authors should appear in the abstract adding the number in the corresponding box.

For each author, the following information must be provided:

- First name
- Last name
- Institutional affiliation(s)
- City
- Province/State
- Country
- Order in which the authors should appear in the abstract

10. Conflict of Interest Declaration

- For each author, it must be clearly stated whether there is any potential conflict of interest related to the subject and/or data presented. If applicable, the conflicts must be specified. If not, state: “The author declares no conflicts of interest.”

11. Corresponding Author

- Please designate a corresponding author, who will be responsible for the abstract and available to answer questions regarding the submission.
- The corresponding author does not necessarily have to be the presenting author.

11. Multiple Submissions

- If an author participates in more than one abstract, the same email address as the primary identifier must be used. Therefore, if his/her personal data have already been entered, the system will automatically display the information after entering the email address.
- If any information is incorrect, the participant may be confirmed and asked to update their personal data directly via the official email saheventos@queventos.com.ar .
- You may save your work and make modifications up until the submission deadline. Once the abstract has been submitted, no further changes can be made.

Submitted abstracts and Review Process

- Once the abstract has been submitted, each co-author will receive an email requesting submission of an Authorship Statement, confirming that he/she contributed to the work and approved the abstract submission.
 - Co-authors can download the submitted abstract in PDF format.
 - All submitted abstracts will be reviewed by the Scientific Committee based on scientific quality, originality, relevance, and clarity.

Acceptance, Publication and E-poster submission

- Authors will be notified of acceptance decisions by email by March 15, 2026, at 12.00 PM (ARG time) by email.
- Accepted abstracts will be published in Revista Hematología of the Argentinian Society of Hematology (SAH).
